

Please do not further deregulate the media. There is no fairness in the media as it is due to large coporations owning multiple media outlets. If the media is further deregulated, it will mean that even more stations will be held by a few corporations. So, that will just mean that one message will be spread across multiple stations, instead of having a diversity of opinions.